All our journals online at www.kluwerlawonline.com

Kluwer Law International
JOURNALS 2010
Welcome

Welcome to the Kluwer Law International’s 2010 Journals catalogue. You will find it provides you with the latest information on all the journals available for the subscription year 2010.

You will find price information for print as well as single user online subscriptions. Special terms are available for site and consortium licences. In Canada please contact our sales team at 1-866-850-7467 or email: international.productinfo@cch.ca for more information.

If you have any questions or require any assistance on the full range of Kluwer Law International information products, please do get in touch and we will be glad to help. You can also visit our website at kluwerlaw.com where you will be able to browse our online catalogue.

Conditions of Sale: Print subscriptions

In Canada, subscriptions have a 12-month subscription period, after which time you will receive an automatic renewal invoice. Your invoice will be sent to you six weeks prior to the renewal date. If you do not wish to renew at that time, you must return the invoice by fax or mail requesting a cancellation.

Subscription prices are subject to change without prior notice.

Conditions of Sale: Online subscriptions

Same conditions apply as for print subscriptions. For more information contact our sales team at 1-866-850-7467 or at international.productinfo@cch.ca

Payments

Payments may be made by cheque or credit card. CCH accepts American Express, MasterCard and Visa.

Claims

Claims for missing issues must be made within three months after the mailing date of the following issues, otherwise such claims cannot be honoured free of charge.

Cancellations

Any product may be returned (prepaid and accompanied by the original invoice) within 30 days of receipt for full credit. After 30 days, specific policies apply.
Contents

Journals are listed in the catalogue by practice area

Commercial Arbitration
- Arbitration International page 1
- ASA Bulletin page 2
- Asian International Arbitration Journal page 2
- Journal of International Arbitration page 3
- World Trade and Arbitration Materials page 3

Competition/Antitrust Law
- World Competition page 4

Corporate / Commercial Law
- Business Law Review page 4
- European Company Law page 5
- European Business Law Review page 6

Environmental Law
- European Energy and Environmental Law Review page 7

European Community Law
- Common Market Law Review page 7
- European Foreign Affairs Review page 8
- European Public Law page 8
- European Review of Private Law page 8

International Tax Law
- EC Tax Review page 9
- Intertax page 9

International Trade Law
- Global Trade and Customs Journal page 10
- Journal of World Trade page 10
- Legal Issues of Economic Integration page 11

Labour Law
- International Journal of Comparative Labour Law and Industrial Relations page 11

Transportation Law
- Air and Space Law page 12
KluwerLawOnline

Our online journal and looseleafs offer you the following features:

- Electronic Table of Contents Alerts: Receive the Full Table of Contents via email
- RSS feeds; sign up to receive notification when a new journal/supplement is posted to the site. Choose to receive an RSS feed for all journals or per journal.
- Easy navigation to the journal issues of your choice

For more information, visit www.KluwerLawOnline.com

COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION

ARBITRATION INTERNATIONAL

The Official Journal of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA)

General Editor: William W. Park

Arbitration International contains over 100 pages of authoritative information per issue, maintaining an appropriate balance between controversial subjects for debate and topics geared towards practical use. It enables arbitrators and practitioners of other forms of alternative dispute resolution, lawyers, academics, judges, corporate legal advisors, and government officials to remain conversant in this cutting-edge arena and to access information of practical use in their fields.

Published four times a year, the journal includes:

- Specialist Articles: on crucial issues in global commercial arbitration covering all major jurisdictions, written by respected international practitioners and key arbitration specialists.
- Up-to-the-minute Notes: reporting on important current developments and matters of debate.
- Special Section: subjects of particular interest or topicality addressed.
- Timely Book Notes and In-Depth Book Reviews: practitioners are kept informed of the latest publications in worldwide arbitration.
- Conference Update: information provided on key arbitration events, like LCIA meetings, conferences and seminars.

Annual Index supplied on disk to subscriber.

2010, Volume 26 (4 issues), ISSN 0957-0411
2010 list price: $860CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
ASA BULLETIN

An official quarterly journal of Association Suisse de l’Arbitrage

Editor-in-Chief: Pierre Lalive

The Bulletin has carved a unique niche for its detailed focus on arbitration case law and practice worldwide as well as for its judicious selection of scholarly and practical writing in the field. Regular contents includes: articles; leading cases of the Swiss Federal Tribunal, relevant leading cases of other Swiss courts, and arbitral awards and acts of procedure rendered both in ad hoc arbitrations and in administrated arbitrations under various auspices, including ICC, ICSID, CCIG and NAFTA.

Each case and article is published in its original language with a comprehensive head note in English, French and German.

2010, Volume 28 (4 issues), ISSN 1010-9153
2010 price list: $384CAD
Available in print and online

ASIAN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION JOURNAL

Editors: Michael Pryles, Philip Chan

The Asian International Arbitration Journal is the first journal to provide high level commentary applicable to arbitration throughout Asia. Published in collaboration with the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and backed by a panel of distinguished and uniquely Asian-focused advisers, the Asian International Arbitration Journal offers independent, neutral and reliable coverage.

Published twice a year the Asian International Arbitration Journal delivers 'how-to' guidance (What should you be aware of? How do you enforce arbitration decisions? How do you ensure compliance?) directly applicable to arbitration practice. This practice-based publication will guide you through the maze of different arbitral institutions, regulatory changes and increasing body of case law and awards in Asia.

2010, Volume 6 (2 issues), ISSN 1574-3330
2010 price list: $333CAD
Only available in online format.

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION

JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

General Editor: Michael Moser

This thought-provoking journal offers the arbitration community in-depth investigations of the most important current issues in international arbitration, focusing on arbitral settlements of business, investment, and economic disputes between private corporations, State-controlled entities, and States. The New Notes and Current Developments section contains concise and critical commentary on new developments in the world of arbitration.

The journal is published six times a year so that it offers immediacy as a forum for original thinking, penetrating analysis, and lively discussion of international arbitration issues. In 2005 the Journal won a prestigious Burton Award.

2010, Volume 27 (6 issues), ISSN 0255-8106
2010 list price: $1169CAD
Available in print and online

WORLD TRADE AND ARBITRATION MATERIALS

Editor: Roger Alford

This journal publishes the texts of all of the most important current documents relating to international trade not readily available elsewhere. It also includes a selection of essential current documents relating to international arbitration as a means of settling international business disputes. The journal provides arbitral awards, news of adhesion to international conventions, court decisions, statutes, reports from official authorities, arbitration rules, and news of arbitration centres and associations.

Published 6 times a year its coverage makes World Trade and Arbitration Materials an indispensable tool for those working in the fields of arbitration and trade, especially those involved in research in those areas.

2010, Volume 22 (6 issues), ISSN 1022-6583
2010 list price: $840CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
WORLD COMPETITION

Editor: Jose Rivas

Now in its 33rd year of publication World Competition keeps its readers at the forefront of trends and events in international antitrust law and economics by consistently presenting world-class contributions from today’s leading authorities. Published four times each year, this journal is truly global in terms of coverage, authorship, and readership. It offers you unsurpassed reporting on US antitrust laws, European Union competition law, Canadian antitrust law, Japanese unfair trade practices law, national competition laws in Australia and New Zealand and antitrust laws in the countries of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. World Competition also serves as a lively forum for debate on controversial issues, such as collective dominance, private enforcement of antitrust laws, tying, and the implementation of a system of international competition.

2010, Volume 33 (4 issues), ISSN 1011-4548
2010 list price: $868CAD
Available in print and online

BUSINESS LAW REVIEW

Editor-in-Chief: Alan Wells

A highly respected journal, Business Law Review offers through coverage of all significant issues and developments primarily in UK business law. Business Law Review also keeps readers fully informed of the latest news and legal opinions in the European and international business environments.

Every month Business Law Review offers readers:

- Analytical articles on topics of current importance, written by experts in the field;
- Current Comment on specific areas of business law;
- Infobank – a compact guide to the month’s legal news, providing concise reports of recent developments in UK business law, arranged by subject and fully referenced;
- International Corner – an occasional international service providing coverage of commercial law in foreign jurisdictions;
- Reviews of the latest publications in areas of business law;
- In Parliament – an overview of recent and forthcoming legislation in the UK;
- In Court – a review of recent case law in the UK.

This journal's wide range of topical coverage includes banking, commercial property, company law, competition law, consumer credit and protection, contracts, data protection, employment, finance and financial services, insider dealing, insurance, intellectual property, media law, privatization, public sector, takeover and mergers, taxation, transport and value added tax.

2010, Volume 31 (11 issues), ISSN 0143-6295
2010 list price: $1260CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
The increase in cross-border corporate activity, together with the recent expansion of the European Union, has meant that developments in European company and securities law continue to pose a challenge to law firms and corporations. Staying current in this dynamic and rapidly-changing area of practice can be no easy task. To help you manage this challenge Kluwer Law International publishes European Company Law, a legal information service that provides you with an authoritative overview of current developments.

European Company Law has been designed to be the ideal working tool for all corporate lawyers with a European practice. Published bi-monthly and available in print and online, you’ll find it a time saving way of keeping up-to-date with all the issues affecting European company law. As a subscriber you will enjoy:

- Authoritative articles providing you with analysis of the latest issues affecting European company and securities law. They help you gain insight and understanding of existing and forthcoming EC Regulations, Directives and other EC initiatives and developments.
- Time saving country reports, written by leading academics you can depend on, offering you an at-a-glance overview of recent and forthcoming developments in major European jurisdictions including: Belgium; The Czech Republic; Denmark; France; Germany; Italy; The Netherlands; Norway; Poland; Spain and the UK.
- A quick and easy to use reference of cases and legislation, ensuring that you are up-to-date with EU legislation and ECJ cases. With this time saving resource at your fingertips you will be able to stay abreast of important EU and domestic cases and legislation and their implications for your practice.
- An essential update from the International Bar Association Corporate Counsel Forum and European Company Lawyers Association providing useful information on their pending and future activities in the field of European Corporate Law.

2010, Volume 7 (6 issues)
ISSN: 1572-4999
2010 list price: $894CAD
Available in print and online

EUROPEAN BUSINESS LAW REVIEW

General Editors: Guido Alpa, Mads Andenas

European Business Law Review offers you authoritative analysis on a wide range of issues and developments in European business law. With contributors providing an international as well as a European perspective, the Review proves an invaluable source of current debate, information, practical analysis, and expert guidance for all practising lawyers, advisers, and scholars dealing with European business law on a regular basis.

Every issue of European Business Law Review includes:

- Analytical articles offering incisive investigations and practical analysis of topics of current importance
- Country reports highlighting key issues from different European countries
- Eurobrief, containing concise summaries of the latest European Community Directives, as reported in the Official Journal, and details of relevant communications from key European institutions
- Case notes on important recent cases from the European Court of Justice, the Court of First Instance and various national courts
- Reviews of the latest literature on areas of European business law

2010, Volume 21 (6 issues), ISSN 0959-6941
2010 list price: $1233CAD
Available in print and online

EUROPEAN ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW REVIEW

Editors: Kurt Deketelaere, Zen Makuch

European Energy and Environmental Law Review is an established monthly journal which provides you with comprehensive coverage of the latest developments in energy and environmental law throughout Europe. A network of expert correspondents provides, on a regular basis, news from the European Community (EC) and the national jurisdictions of the European Union member states.

In addition to this incisive reporting, the Review contains concise, accessible articles which explore and analyse significant issues and developments in energy and environmental law and practice throughout Europe as well as informative book reviews, covering the latest literature on energy and environmental law and policy.

European Energy and Environmental Law Review enables the reader to keep abreast of significant and topical aspects including the legal issues relating to renewables, energy security, energy efficiency, energy competition law, energy liberalisation process, electricity and gas markets, climate change, sustainable energy, land, air, fresh water, oceans, noise, waste management, dangerous substances, and nature conservation. Its succinct, practical style makes it ideal for the busy professional, while authority, scope and topicality of its coverage make it an invaluable research tool.

2010, Volume 19 (6 issues), ISSN 0966-1646
2010 list price: $1070CAD
Available in print and online

COMMON MARKET LAW REVIEW

Editors: Thomas Ackermann, Alan Dashwood, Michael Dougan, Jacqueline Dutheil de la Rochère, Christophe Hillion, Jean-Paul Jacqué, Pieter Jan Kuijper, Sacha Prechal, Wulf-Henning Roth, Piet Jan Slot, Jan A. Winter

The Common Market Law Review has provided a forum for the keenest legal minds in the field for more than 40 years. Because of the international composition of its Editorial Board, and in view of the fact that it is able to attract contributions from all over Europe, and from the United States, the Review is able to adopt a unique approach to capitalize Community issues.

Published six times year, this preeminent journal brings you detailed, in-depth examination of the most pressing and far-reaching issues on Community Law such as: Common foreign and security policy; Community Law in National Courts; developments in market deregulation; E-commerce; Enforcement of EC and EU law; European consumer protection; European rules on conflict of laws and conflict of jurisdictions; General principals of EU law; Regulation of public procurement; State aid policy and practice; telecommunications; The EU/WTO relationship; The single European currency.

2010, Volume 47 (6 issues), ISSN 0165-0750
2010 list price: $1207CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
EUROPEAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS REVIEW

Editors: Jörg Monar, Nanette Neuwahl

Published four times a year, European Foreign Affairs Review considers the position of the European Union with regard to political, legal, and economic relations with the rest of the world. It provides an interdisciplinary medium for the understanding and analysis of foreign affairs issues of relevance to the European Union, its member States, and its international partners.

2010, Volume 15 (4 issues), ISSN 1384-6299
2010 list price: $582CAD
Available in print and online

EUROPEAN PUBLIC LAW

Editor-in-Chief: Patrick J. Birkinshaw

European Public Law provides a detailed analysis of constitutional and administrative law at a crucial stage of European integration. In its high-quality articles, authorities in the field investigate the extent to which the separate systems of public law in each Member state are, notwithstanding their distinct historical and cultural backgrounds, developing a European Public Law in tandem with the law of the European Community Treaty. The journal also examines the public law systems of new Member states.

2010, Volume 16 (4 issues), ISSN 1354-3725
2010 list price: $707CAD
Available in print and online

EUROPEAN REVIEW OF PRIVATE LAW

Editors: E.H. Hondius, M.L. Storme

The European Review of Private Law stresses the great practical as well as academic importance of national private laws in an integrating Europe, in the face of the current overwhelming emphasis placed on European Community Law. By providing accessible and comparative surveys of legal developments in a number of countries, with summaries of articles and case notes in French, German and English, the Review provides a valuable source of information for lawyers wishing to look for new ideas with which to encourage their courts to innovate in private law.

2010, Volume 18 (6 issues), ISSN 0928-9801
2010 list price: $948CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
EC TAX REVIEW

Editor: Ben J. Kiekebeld

EC Tax Review provides up to date coverage of developments in Community tax law as it affects member states.

Published six times a year, it provides comprehensive and timely analysis enabling you to anticipate the effect of EU tax law on the regime in your own country. EC Tax Review offers the following features:

- Exclusively dedicated to EU tax development, the harmonisation of taxation and the implementation of EC Tax laws into national legislation
- Detailed coverage of direct and indirect taxation and social security from a legal and economic perspective
- Key cases from the European Court of Justice and important national cases
- Directs you to relevant literature from respective EU member states
- A first-class editorial board
- Articles are selected from local experts from member states and Brussels

The quality, timeliness and diversity of its articles make EC Tax Review essential reading for the European tax lawyer, practitioner, consultant, academic, or accountant.

2010, Volume 19 (6 issues), ISSN 0928-2750
2010 list price: $790CAD
Available in print and online

INTERTAX

General Editor: Fred C. de Hosson

Nowhere is the complex field of international taxation better served than in the well-established journal Intertax.

For three decades it has provided 12 issues a year of practical, up to date, high-level international tax information. Intertax aims to enlighten the reader on transnational tax issues through the following:

- Contributions from a global network of tax experts
- Articles on both direct and indirect taxation in countries around the world
- Reports on multinational tax developments emanating from organisations such as the WTO, the OECD, the United Nations and the EC
- Special regional coverage features, for example Tax in the EC, US, or China, which offer concise overviews of the latest developments in each area
- Special issues on topical subjects such as abuse of law

Intertax is essential reading for tax practitioners and academics, who need a global opinion on direct and indirect taxation.

2010, Volume 38 (12 issues), ISSN 0165-2826
2010 list price: $1502CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
GLOBAL TRADE AND CUSTOMS JOURNAL
Editor-in-Chief: Edwin Vermulst

Global Trade and Customs Journal provides you with innovative ideas, fresh insights, and expert views on critical practical issues affecting international trade and customs compliance. Written for practitioners by practitioners, the journal offers you reliable guidance on critical areas affecting international business. It also provides you with actionable advice to ensure that you are able to protect your clients or organisation from developments that could adversely affect their interests.

With a subscription to Global Trade and Customs Journal you will be able to:
- Stay up-to-date with today’s rules and regulations and one step ahead of tomorrow’s trends
- Develop successful compliance programs and cost-effective business processes
- Heighten your awareness of trade issues with serious potential financial implications for your organisation or your client’s business
- Identify compliance opportunities and the do’s and don’ts of taking advantage of these benefits
- Avoid trade and customs problems through industry-specific guidance
- Feel confident in your decision making knowing you’ve been briefed by highly regarded trade and customs experts

Published 10 times a year the journal is ideal reading material for trade and customs professionals with an interest in staying ahead of legal and compliance-based developments in the field.

2010, Volume 5 (10 issues), ISSN 1569-755X
2010 list price: $797CAD
Available in print and online

JOURNAL OF WORLD TRADE
Editor: Edwin Vermulst

Far and away the most thought-provoking and informative journal in its field, the Journal of World Trade sets the agenda for both scholarship and policy initiatives in this most critical area of international relations.

With penetrating, in-depth analysis, the journal examines the relationship between the separate and interconnected regional and global integration processes stemming from today’s challenging multilateral trading structure. The operation of the North American Free Trade Agreement, the expansion of the European integration process, and especially the ongoing development of the World Trade organization have each raised complex questions that cut across many disciplines: economic, political, social and legal.

Scholars, government officials, lawyers and negotiators turn to the Journal of World Trade when they seek to expose ground-breaking theses, to make important policy statements, to offer in-depth analysis and discussion of delicate trade issues.

2010, Volume 44 (6 issues), ISSN 1011-6702
2010 list price: $1408CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
LEGAL ISSUES OF ECONOMIC INTEGRATION

Managing Editor: James Mathis

Legal Issues of Economic Integration publishes thought-provoking articles, case notes and book reviews on European and international economic integration. It includes contributions from regarded academics, practitioners, and legal representatives of international economic organisations.

The journal provides a discussion of the legal choices that are raised by the process of economic liberalisation. It compares European and other regional systems, and draws the developments into the larger framework of the WTO and other international bodies.

Published four times a year, the journal’s sophisticated and scholarly articles make Legal Issues of Economic Integration essential reading for academics, practitioners, government officials and international civil servants concerned with European or other regional economic arrangements and with international trade law.

2010, Volume 37 (4 issues), ISSN 1566-6573
2010 list price: $533CAD
Available in print and online

LABOUR LAW

THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF COMPARATIVE LABOUR LAW AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Managing Editors: Olga Rymkevich, Marlene Schmidt, Michele Tiraboschi

Providing commentary, documents and critical analysis from all over the world on labour law, industrial relations, and human resource management, this journal has become established as the major English language publication in its field. Its interdisciplinary approach analyses economic and sociological developments as well as legislation and case law.

Published four times a year, the journal is an essential source of information and analysis for labour lawyers, judges, policymakers, personnel specialists, international law firms, trade unions, multinational organizations, academics and libraries.

2010, Volume 26 (4 issues), ISSN 0952-617X
2010 list price: $458CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues
AIR AND SPACE LAW

Editors: Berend J. H. Crans, Peter van Fenema, Mark Franklin, Wybo P. Heere, Pablo Mendes de Leon, Onno Rijsdijk, George N. Tompkins, Jr.

Hailed as the preeminent source of analysis and debate in its field, Air & Space Law crosses cultural and international lines – and presents government, commercial, and theoretical perspectives – to help you handle the new legal and business challenges wrought by key developments in air and space law regulation, commerce, public policy, and litigation.

Air & Space Law’s team of contributing editors consists of practitioners from the legal government, public policy, and private sectors. These experts share their valuable research, analysis, and practical insights with you to help clarify such crucial issues as:

- U.S. Commercial space legislation and policies
- Aircraft accident investigation and liability legislation
- Air traffic control and related issues such as congestion and environment problem
- Multilateral conventions and EC law relating to matters such as traffic rights and access to airports
- War and terrorism insurance
- Satellite communications

Also included are texts and in-depth commentary on important new and model legal instruments, summaries of important cases, conference reports, and the most complete annual bibliography available.

2010, Volume 35 (6 issues), ISSN 0927-3379
2010 list price: $777CAD
Available in print and online

Go to www.KluwerLawOnline.com for previews and sample issues